

SMALL BUSINESS OMBUDSMAN

Wisconsin's Small Business Ombudsman assists business owners with the following areas:

- ◆ specific complaints about state laws, administrative rules, or agency interpretations;
- ◆ provides information and referrals on special programs;
- ◆ monitors the progress of legislation and rules and acts as a small business advocate;
- ◆ conducts training and organizes local networks to encourage entrepreneurship;
- ◆ and administers Wisconsin's Regulatory Flexibility Act, which provides for special consideration of small businesses in state administrative rules.

Contact the Small Business Ombudsman at Department of Commerce, 608/267-0297.